

It's the ONLY THING you really have.

It's yours when you're alone, but ours when we're together. 🕒 Live it fully and it stands still. Miss the point and it races by. 🕒 It's at the core of music, love, and life. You can race it, mark it, drag it, and count it, but you can't make it and you can't stop it. 🕒 You have more now than you'll ever have again.

It's TIME. How will you spend it?
